

Local News

E. W. Ewbank has returned from his business trip to the eastern part of the state.

A. W. Calhoun of the Hendersonville Wholesale Grocery Co., has returned from his trip South.

D. S. Staton, of Staton Bros., with his family, has gone to Canton for a few day's visit.

Heasley Stepp left on Wednesday for Chapel Hill, where he will take the regular academic course.

The Board of Trade will hold a meeting Thursday night. Everyone should make it a point to attend.

Dr. C. H. McDowell, of Waynesville, formerly of this city, was in town, Saturday, accompanied by his family.

J. E. Shipman, a rising young attorney of Columbus, spent the holidays with relatives in Hendersonville and vicinity.

A. W. Smith, of Route 5, paid us a pleasant visit, Monday, and also settled for his subscription, saying he could not get along without the Hustler.

F. A. and H. H. Ewbank, who represent Parke-Davis Co., of Detroit, have left for their homes, after spending two weeks with their family here.

Mrs. L. W. McCutchan desires to express her thanks for the kindness of her friends during the illness of her son, the late John S. McCutchan.

Dr. W. T. Wallace, the well known dentist, will leave this week for Greensboro, S. C., and other points south. He will remain about two months.

Miss Rena Jewell of Asheville is spending the holidays at Valmont, as the guest of Miss Fayette Gurley, and reports a very pleasant time.

Dr. T. A. Allen, accompanied by Mrs. Allen, has gone to Florida. The doctor will remain about one month, while Mrs. Allen will stay during the winter.

G. O. Stovall, of South Boston, is a new citizen of Hendersonville. He has bought property here, and expresses himself as being highly pleased with this community.

See on our last page the program of the Bible Congress to be held at the Baptist church, beginning on the 7th and running until the 12th, at 7:30 p. m. Let all who can attend.

The last day of the old year was a perfect specimen of Western North Carolina weather—which means that it was unsurpassed anywhere in the United States.

The lake project is moving along very satisfactorily to its promoters, and it is likely there will soon be news of sufficient interest to make most people sit up and take notice.

J. E. Thomas has returned from Philadelphia, his home. Mr. Thomas spent six months here and then returned north. He found his health was much better here and has returned for a longer stay.

A. Ficker will shortly have a handsome new residence built on the site of his old brick residence, which is now being torn down. It will be of exceptionally good construction, and will contain seven rooms with all modern conveniences.

The Misses Miles, who have just purchased the Grant place in Flat Rock, will improve the property. Their plans are most comprehensive, and it is expected will result in making this already desirable property one of the most beautiful in Flat Rock.

Thos. P. Ivy, of Centre Conway, N. H., is in town. Mr. Ivy spent last winter in Hendersonville, and while here published his work, "Forestry Problems of the United States," from the press of the Hustler. Mr. Ivy will remain some time.

Rev. W. N. Flanders has just about recovered from his recent attack of the grippe. He left last Friday for Winston, for a short visit, and then goes for a short trip south. After living in every state in the Union but five, Rev. Flanders says the climate of Henderson is the best all-the-year-round of any.

George A. Gash, of Tryon, was here Tuesday to attend the Claude Brown Co. sale. The friends of Mr. Gash in Henderson, his native county, will be glad to know that he recently became sole owner and manager of the Tryon Supply Company which is a nice paying proposition.

Ex-Sheriff John Grant will shortly start a pressing and cleaning establishment in the rock building above King & Marshall's store. Mr. Grant has ordered a full equipment of modern appliances to be used in his establishment, and feels confident he can give his patrons first-class service. The Sheriff has so many friends here that his success in his new field is assured.

Last Thursday, at the Arden depot, Francis Summer shot and killed Charlie Powers. Both men were residents of Arden. They had spent the day in Asheville, had quarreled on the train and at the depot renewed the fight. Mr. Summer is a son of Jesse Summer and Powers was a son of Riley Powers. Summer was arrested and taken to Asheville.

Next Monday is commissioner's day. Your taxes, please, say the city and county collectors.

G. Van Schalek and wife have returned from Savannah.

Z. T. Rogers, of Horse Shoe, was in town Tuesday, and called and settled his subscription.

A most enjoyable dance was given by Mrs. Gurley at her home, Belmont, on Tuesday night.

Miss Belle Shipman, of Blantyre, spent a few days with relations in Hendersonville last week.

The family of H. G. Ewart have gone to Kansas City, the present residence of the Judge.

J. A. Bryson leaves for Camden, S. C., this week, where he contemplates spending the winter.

J. A. Maddrey is taking a holiday outing in Eastern Carolina. He is a native of Northampton county.

John Bowen is home for a couple of weeks from Indian Territory, his residence for the past five years.

C. E. Brooks, the efficient county tax collector, went to Asheville on business Tuesday morning.

Miss Mamie McGuire and Miss Daisy Norton were in the city from Brevard this week visiting relatives and friends.

Dr. Zora K. Justice, wife and little son, who have been visiting in Brevard, passed through Hendersonville on Monday enroute for their home in Davidson.

Emancipation Day was celebrated by the colored people on New Year's day. A large number from out of town were present.

Mr. Goodman, grandson of Capt. W. D. Miller, who recently married M. S. Johnston's daughter, of Horse Shoe, is home for a visit.

The Balfour quarries last week shipped two cars of beautiful pink granite to Chicago. Some of the pieces were 21 feet in length.

The Claude Brown sale attracted a large crowd of buyers. Prices secured were good, and practically everything in the big barns was sold.

The Southern Railway started the new year's business by running its trains on schedule time. Here's hoping for similar conditions throughout the year.

The Margaret Davis Hayes Chapter U. D. C. will meet at their room in the court house on Wednesday, Jan. 9th. This is an important meeting—all members are urged to attend.

Start the new year by "getting right on the books." Hereafter the name on each paper will be printed, with date when subscription expires, so that all may be advised from time to time exactly when renewal may be expected.

Our mailing list is now being revised. How well it would be for every subscriber to adjust that little matter of subscription and begin a "new deal." Some who are far in arrears will not receive the paper after the list for 1907 is completed. Yet we shall regret to lose a single one.

Pythians Elect Officers.

The Hendersonville Lodge Knights of Pythias in regular convention assembled at their castle hall on Monday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Chancellor Commander E. W. Ewbank
Vice-Chancellor J. C. Morrow
Prelate R. V. Wilcox
Master of work A. H. Hawkins
Keeper Records and Seal F. W. Ewbank

Master of finance C. E. Brooks
Master of Exchequer K. G. Morris
Master at Arms J. F. Brooks
Inner Guard Joe McCrary
Outer Guard J. E. Anders

The newly elected officers and members of the lodge are requested to be present next Monday evening at installation ceremonies.

Past Grand George A. Gash, of Tryon, was present at the meeting the week and made an interesting talk upon the good of the order.

Real Estate Deals.

Among the real estate deals recently closed by Ewbank and Ewbank are the following:

To J. B. Stovall, of Virginia, one of John Orr's cottages, $1,100.

To Mrs. J. B. Friday, of Columbia, S. C., the Miss Hall cottage in East Hendersonville, for $850.00.

To D. M. Goudian, Mrs. Heffner's farm, for $1,350.

To the Misses Miles, Flat Rock, the Grant place, for $11,000.

To H. H. and F. A. Ewbank, the F. W. Ewbank lot on Main st.

Willie Also Discovers.

A teacher in charge of the second primary grade at a Denver school was telling the children about Columbus one day not long ago. She told them all about the home life of the discoverer of America and all about his people.

"His relatives," she said, "were wool combers."

The next day Columbus was discussed again. "By the way, children," said the teacher, "do you remember what his relatives were?"

There was a moment of profound stillness. Then a little fellow in the rear of the room raised his hand.

"You may tell us, Willie," said the teacher.

"They was barbers," said the boy—Denver Post.

Mill-Allen.

Greenville, S. C., Dec. 23, 1906.

Some few of the people of Greenville had the pleasure of witnessing a very pretty and enjoyable occasion at the home of Mr. G. E. Carnes. Miss Hoyt Hill and Mr. James Alton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Ben Ballenger of Greenville officiating. The wedding was a very pretty affair. The bride being dressed in Alice blue silk trimmed in madeline lace and gilt. A flowing white veil and hat to correspond. Miss Hill was a graduate from Fruitland Institute and having spent the greater portion of the summer in Greenville, she gained many true and lasting friends. She has been home for some time teaching until last week when she returned to her many friends and she and Mr. Alton were married. Mr. Alton is a well known young man of Greenville and is esteemed very highly by all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. Alton will make their home in Greenville for some time, we hope they will remain with us. Their many friends extend to them many greetings and best wishes that their life may be one of peace, happiness and success. A FRIEND.

Good Roads Meeting.

It has been suggested by a number of people that there ought to be some amendment made to our road law for this county. A mass meeting has been called to meet in the court house at one o'clock on Saturday of this week, for the purpose of discussing the subject. Everybody who has any suggestions to offer in regard to the matter should attend this meeting and make them. Those who know of the meeting and do not attend will have no grounds for kicking about what may be done, and will be expected to forever hereafter hold their peace. W. C. RECTOR.

Preferred Locals.

FOR SALE—A good Jersey cow, with calf about ten days old. A fine milker. Price $35. Address W. C. Connell, Pleasant Hill, Route 3.

FOR SALE—Fine Lowden Raspberry Plants. Apply to J. F. Brooks, Hunter's Pharmacy. $1.00 per 1000—$6 per 1000

Raspberries, Lowden, Yellow Queen, and Cuthbert, for sale by J. W. WOFFORD.

FOR SALE—A 2 1/2 horse-power gasoline engine. Price reasonable. Apply at this office.

For rent; two cottages, J. D. Dermid.

For a set of ARTIFICIAL TEETH that gives perfect satisfaction, call on Dr. Wallace, over the post office.

Notice of Land Sale.

By virtue of the power contained in a mortgage deed executed on the 26th day of November 1904 by Walker Heatherly and Anner Heatherly, his wife to R. C. Stepp and by said R. C. Stepp duly assigned for value to me, I will offer for sale at the Court house door in Hendersonville within the legal hours of sale on the 7th day of January 1907, under the conditions contained in the said mortgage the following described land lying and being in the Township of Blue Ridge, Henderson County, North Carolina, and bounded as follows: Beginning on a maple, Govan Tabor's corner, also corner of lot number 7 of the Henry Stepp lands, and runs S. 30 deg. E. 90 poles to a small hickory, thence N. 58 deg. E. 23 poles to a water Oak; thence N. 35 deg. E. 54 poles to a stake, corner of lot number 12, thence with line of said lot N. 46 deg. W. 83 poles to a stake and pointers in an old road, corner of lot number 11 and 12; thence with the line of lot number 11 N. 83 deg. W. 18 poles to a stake in an old field, corner of lots number 7, 8 and 11; thence with the line of lot number 7 S. 15 deg. W. 40 poles to the beginning containing 35 acres more or less.

The conditions in the above mentioned mortgage provide for the sale of the said land in case of default of the said Walker Heatherly and Anner Heatherly in the payment of the debt secured by the said mortgage when the same should fall due, or in the payment of the interest or any part of the principal. Default having been made in the payment of two of the notes secured by the said mortgage, which notes are now past due, the whole amount secured by the said mortgage is declared due under the provision of the mortgage and the land is advertised for sale in order to the payment of the said debt, interest and cost of the sale.

This December 4th, 1906.
R. C. Stepp, Mortgagee
A. Z. Stepp, Assignee
Per McD. Ray, Attorney

Food don't digest? Because the stomach lacks some one of the essential digestants or the digestive juices are not properly balanced. Then, too, it is this undigested food that causes sourness and painful indigestion. Kodol For Indigestion should be used for relief. Kodol is a solution of vegetable acids. It digests what you eat, and corrects the deficiencies of the digestion. Kodol conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by F. V. Hunter.

Oldest in the State. Best. Shortland Typewriting. Penmanship. English courses. Graduates in positions. Half or more of your railroad fare paid. Plenty of good board at $2.50 to $3.50 per week. No vacation. Enter any time. Special course by mail if you ask for it.

In "The Land of the Sky," Near the Sapphire Country.

W. S. Shockey
Principal.
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Notice of Land Sale.

By virtue of the power contained in a mortgage deed executed on the 26th day of September, 1904, by N. B. Featherstone and wife, L. L. Featherstone to McD. Ray, and duly assigned by him for value to me, which mortgage was executed for the purpose of securing a certain debt therein mentioned, I will offer for sale at the Court house door in Hendersonville on the 7th day of January, 1907, within the legal hours of sale, to the highest bidder for cash in order to satisfy said indebtedness, the following described piece or parcel of land lying and being in the Townships of Hoopers Creek and Hendersonville Henderson County, North Carolina, and known and designated as follows: Adjoining the lands of M. E. Featherstones T. C. Anderson and others:

Beginning on a spanish oak on a ridge, the beginning corner of a 200 acre tract, now owned by M. E. Featherstone, and runs with the line of the same N. 45 deg. W. 56 poles to a white oak stump, her corner; thence N. 13 deg. W. with her line 82 poles to a stake in the line of a 120 acre tract; thence with said line S. 40 deg. E. 86 poles to a stake, M. E. Featherstone's corner; thence N. 71 deg. E. 54 poles to a stake at the head of a ditch, thence with said ditch 37 poles to a stake, T. O. Anderson's corner; thence South with Ramsey Allen's line 60 poles to a chestnut oak, thence West with Simon McMinn's line 40 poles to a stake, his corner, thence S. 42 deg. E. with his other line 140 poles to a stake, M. E. Featherstone's corner, thence with her line N. 50 deg. W. 137 poles to the beginning containing 42 acres.

Default having been made in the payment of the debt secured by the above said mortgage when the same fell due the said sale will be made under the provisions of the said mortgage for sale of the lands therein described in case of default.

This 4th day of December, 1906.
McD. Ray, Mortgagee
W. C. Jordan, Assignee
Per McD. Ray, Attorney

COAL TO BURN!

If you want a ton, a half-ton or any quantity of the best coal ever burned in this city

TELEPHONE 142.

Prompt delivery and satisfaction guaranteed. We know we can please you, and solicit a trial order.

Also a small amount of Ice on hand, to be sold at right prices.

Purity Laundry, Ice & Fuel Co.

J. B. SEAWELL & SON, Props.

JERRY CARTER

Main St., Next door to Hawkins Jewellstore Hendersonville

Complete Rack et Store Christmas goods and novelties at prices you cant resist.

Groceries and Fruits Your Patronage Solicited

"Stronger than The Law"

The Strongest, most Durable Shoe on the market, without any exception.

Boys' - - $2.25
Men's - - $2.75

M. M. Shepherd Where your $ goes Farthest

A BANK AT YOUR DOOR

NO MATTER WHEN YOU LIVE YOU OWE YOUR SYSTEM OF BANKING MAIL WITH THE WACHOVIA LOAN & TRUST CO. NORTH CAROLINA'S OLDEST TRUST COMPANY AND STRONGEST BANKING INSTITUTION WITH CAPITAL AND SURPLUS OF OVER $725,000.00. ADDRESS—ASHEVILLE, N. C. FOR INFORMATION SEND FOR IT TODAY. 4% PAID ON CERTIFICATE AND 4% IN SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Queen Quality

THE WOMAN OF TASTE when she buys shoes, must have Quality, ought to have Style, and prefers to have Economy. And she gets all three when she buys "Queen Quality" Shoes. When the "Queen Quality" sales surpass those of all other women's shoes in the world, there must be a reason for it. See our window display of these famous shoes, then let us prove this claim with just one pair. In all styles shapes and leathers $3.00—$3.50—$4.00.

Hendersonville Mercantile Co. Toms Block

Dry Goods of Quality and Garments Ready-to-wear.

Asheville's Best Dry Goods Store Bon Marche

Every advertisement that the Bar Marche places in this paper may be relied upon as being simple facts.

We do not believe in advertising things we hav'nt in stock or selling goods out at prices unbelievable:

We back up every statement we make in a newspaper, therefore the people have placed confidence in us which is the reason that we have "The Best Dry Goods Store" in Asheville.

Address our Mail Order Department for samples of new goods which will begin arriving the first of January 1907.

The Footwear of a Gentleman

Quality in a Stetson Shoe stands out all over it—you can see it—you can feel it. Before buying another pair ask to see

Look at it—feel the leather—

Examine the fine stitching. The materials are selected for quality—the shoe is made for quality and it shows value that you can see at a glance. Full lines—all styles—all leathers. For sale by

G. M. Glazener.

$7 For November and $7 December only Allen, the Dentist

Will make the best rubber plates during November and December for seven dollars. All plates guaranteed to be satisfactory or no pay. All other work reduced in proportion for this time.

Every Saturday during this time I will extract teeth free of charge for people unable to pay for same. Investigate his prices before having your work done.

New Office: Bailey Block, adjoining Dr. Kirk's office.

Allen, the Dentist